SPORT "DOPE"

The Sully League Race.

Yesterday's results in the South Atlantic served to separate the clubs in the percentage column, Columbia strengthening her place at the top of the list and Augusta going to second place. These clubs copied both games of double-headers played yesterday. The teams of the Sully were all marked at 500 per cent on the sporting pages yesterday, with the exception of Columbia at the top and Jacksonville in the cellar. Incidentally, the Jays strengthened their hold on the cellar stall equally as firmly as Columbia antithetically strengthened hers at the top.

Baptists Overjoyed.

It would be putting it mild to say that the Furman club and supporters are delighted over the results of the game with Clemson here Tuesday. The Baptists downed the Man-eaters by 4 to 3 in a game previous to the one staged here, and while a defeat was not exactly anticipated by that club, it is understood that the boys from Greenville are much elated over having saved their scalp.

Atlanta Coming.

The Atlanta Crackers, in the Southern association, are slowly creeping into first division ranks.

Athletics Win One.

Connie Mack's one time world champions actually won a game yesterday, the Senators being the recipients of this ignoble defeat. The New York Giants expects to take a game if the sun should ever shine again.
